Request for Proposals
Professional Development Programs
AFP Aloha Chapter

The AFP Aloha Chapter seeks proposals for educational programs for its 2017 program year. Our chapter is located in Honolulu, Hawaii and consists of 200 members with a range of experience and organizations represented.

Program topics should appeal to fund development professionals, executive directors and CEOs, board members and volunteers. Topics range from the science of fundraising strategies to leadership skills, current events affecting the field, the use of technology and other areas of interest to our membership.

If you have an interest in presenting please complete the attached proposal document and attach a current resume with at least one reference (with phone and email information) who can address your presentation skills.

Presenters representing companies that provide services for a fee to nonprofit organizations will be considered if the presentation topic provides overall educational value to our members. For-profit presenters will be permitted to bring promotional information, to be available to participants after the program concludes. Sales statements and promotional material are not permitted during the presentation.
